EUROPEAN NETWORK OF HOLY WEEK AND EASTER CELEBRATIONS
RED EUROPEA DE CELEBRACIONES
DE SEMANA SANTA Y PASCUA

Days of the European Network of Holy Week and Easter Celebrations have been created to promote and highlight the tangible and intangible cultural heritage associated with these traditions in the towns and cities that form part of the Network. Beyond their traditional season of celebration, the Days offer a cultural and tourism programme aimed at both local communities and visitors.

The programme takes place throughout October 2026 in the participating destinations, showcasing the richness and diversity of these traditions across Europe.

The programme features a wide range of activities, including open days at Holy Week museums and at the headquarters of communities that keep these traditions alive; visits to sacred art workshops and contemporary art studios featuring live demonstrations; themed guided tours focusing on Holy Week and Easter; audiovisual screenings; educational activities for students; theatre performances; exhibitions and concerts, among other activities.
